

COUNCIL AND SCHOOL WORKERS

An unfair pay offer, vote to reject

UNISON has launched a consultation for local government members, working in schools and councils to decide whether to accept or reject your pay offer for 2021.

Despite your courage and sacrifice throughout COVID-19, most council and school workers have only been offered 1.75%. With inflation at 3.9%, that's a real terms pay cut. The value of local government pay has fallen by a quarter since 2010. You went out to work, so that others could stay home.

UNISON is clear – council and school workers deserve a fair and proper pay rise.

We strongly recommend members vote to reject this unfair offer.

What do members need to do?

Your branch will be in touch to ask for your vote. Look out for an email from them throughout September.

It's important you have your say – make sure you check we have the right contact details now at www.unison.org.uk/my-unison
